Editorial Announcement on Nomenclature

In consideration of the nomenclature adopted by the Organizing Committee of the International Symposium on the Primo Vascular System (ISPS2010), the Editorial Office has decided to change the nomenclature for the anatomical structures corresponding to the acupuncture meridian system. Contributors are advised to use the following new terminology adopted by the ISPS2010:

Primo vascular system	(Bonghan system)
Primo-vessel	(Bonghan duct)
Primo-node	(Bonghan corpuscle)
Primo-fluid	(Bonghan Liquor)
Primo-microcell	(Bonghan Sanal)
